

Cheryl A. Hall
cahall7@buffalo.edu
716-645-5297

Profile

A Tax Director with 25 years of experience with an international public accounting firm.

Experience

Clinical Assistant Professor, University at Buffalo School of Management – August, 2016 – present

Providing classroom instruction at undergraduate and graduate levels, concentrating in taxation and financial accounting.

Tax Director, PricewaterhouseCoopers — 1990 - 2015

Served large publicly-traded and private multinational corporations and high net-worth individuals and business owners, concentrating in accounting for income taxes under US GAAP and IFRS, tax consulting and compliance. Frequent instructor for firm sponsored continuing education courses, especially corporate taxation and accounting for income taxes.

Music Teacher (K-3), Albion Central Schools — 1978 - 1988

Provided classroom choral and instrumental education to primary and high school students. Directed award winning high school musical productions.

Education

The State University of New York at Buffalo, Master of Business Administration, May 1990

The Pennsylvania State University, Master of Education, December, 1987

State University College at Fredonia, Bachelor of Music, May 1977

Skills

Accounting for income taxes (US GAAP and IFRS), taxation of business entities (corporations, S corporations, partnerships) and their owners, multi-state taxation, international taxation.

References

A. Michael Penizotto, Tax Partner, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP
Matthew Parrilli, Tax Partner, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP